

BETA TESTING SITE LICENSE AGREEMENT

An important part of the PLS-Graph for Windows software (called the "Product" hereafter) is the "Beta" testing at selected SoftModeling customer sites under controlled conditions, prior to making the Product available for general use. By participating in this test program, Licensee gains access to the Product before it is widely available, and has the opportunity to provide feedback to SoftModeling with suggested changes to the release. The purpose of this Agreement is to acknowledge the conditions whereby Licensee will act as a beta test site for the Product.

Dr. Wynne W. Chin, doing business as Soft Modeling Inc. (called "SoftModeling" hereafter), licenses to (print name of department or college)

_____ (called "Licensee" hereafter) as an official beta test site for PLS-Graph for Windows 3.0 beta version. The Product can only be used by authorized members of this site for internal research, production work, and future purchase considerations after a non-disclosure form is completed.

SoftModeling authorizes the licensee to make additional copies of PLS-Graph for Windows, the PLS-Graph manual, and associated documents for purposes above.

The following conditions will apply to the beta test program for the Product:

1. The beta test period will begin upon the installation of the Product, and may be terminated at any time by either Licensee or by SoftModeling, by providing written notification of such intent.
2. The duration of this test period ends on the date when the Product is announced by SoftModeling as being commercially generally available ("GA"), or 1 year from acceptance of this Agreement, whichever comes later. If the GA release is not completed after 1 year from acceptance, the beta test period will automatically be renewed.
3. Licensee agrees not to discuss the details or status of this beta test program, or any features delivered as part of the Product with any persons other than SoftModeling representatives. All features, schedules, and test results will remain confidential between SoftModeling and Licensee, unless both parties agree in writing to waive this restriction.
4. During the beta test period, there may be additional releases of the Product, which will be provided to Licensee for installation by Licensee. At the end of the beta test period, Licensee will have the option to convert over to the GA release of the Product but shall return the beta version and associated documentation to SoftModeling within fifteen (15) days.

5. Licensee and SoftModeling will agree on the number of beta testers included in the Product beta test program. Each tester must sign a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement form. The Product will not be available to any additional users without the agreement of both Licensee and SoftModeling. Licensee will identify a single point of contact for SoftModeling to work with during problem characterization and resolution.

6. As a normal part of the beta test program, Licensee agrees to provide timely feedback to SoftModeling representatives on the progress of the beta test. This may include bug reports, conferences with SoftModeling representatives, and written evaluations of new features included in the Product.

7. Licensee agrees to treat the Product in the same manner and with the same care and discretion that it treats its own product, which it does not want published, disclosed, divulged, or disseminated.

8. LICENSEE RECOGNIZES THAT ALL PRODUCT AND OTHER ITEMS PROVIDED TO LICENSEE HEREUNDER ARE DELIVERED "AS IS." LICENSEE ASSUMES THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF PRODUCT. NO WARRANTIES ARE GIVEN, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR MERCHANTABILITY OR ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE OR TRADE PRACTICE. 9. Licensee shall not modify, reverse engineer, disassemble, reverse compile, distribute, rent, lease, assign or transfer the Product, nor shall Licensee create any derivative works of the Product. To the extent that the Product includes run time or other components licensed by SoftModeling from third parties, Licensee shall not create any software program that links, embeds or makes direct function calls to such components. Licensee shall not copy the Product except as reasonably required for backup or archival purposes, and shall include SoftModeling's and its licensors' copyright, patent, trademark and other proprietary rights notices on all such copies. The Product shall remain the exclusive property of SoftModeling or its Licensors, and SoftModeling reserves all rights not expressly granted to Licensee.

Licensee agrees that only rights to the Product set forth in this Agreement are provided. The Product is subject to all applicable export laws in accordance with the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and Licensee hereby agrees that neither the technical data nor the direct product thereof is intended to be shipped, either directly or indirectly to any embargoed countries nor used for or in support of any prohibited activities.

11. Upon any termination, Licensee shall cease all use of the Product and promptly return to SoftModeling or destroy all copies of the Product (including copies in storage media), associated documentation, and all other materials or other confidential information provided by SoftModeling or obtained in connection with a beta test. This requirement applies to all copies in any form, partial or complete, and whether or not merged into other materials.

12. This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the matters set forth herein and supersedes all prior representations, understandings, or agreements, whether written or oral, express or implied, with respect to this transaction.

13. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, U.S.A., other than those provisions of Texas law governing conflicting of laws

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed and delivered this Agreement on the dates below written.
